

Water Management Technology in History Workshop

Aspects of the Greek Experience

Tuesday, November 29th 2011
10:00-13:00

Room D

Department of Philosophy and History of Science (DPHS)
University of Athens (UOA)

Program

Welcome Note

Costas Dimitrakopoulos
Professor and Chair
DPHS/UAO

Introduction

Aristotle Tympas
DPHS/UAO

Aspects of pre-modern water management, from the Antiquity to the Byzantine Era

Anna Sfika

Ph.D. Candidate, Department of Archaeology and the History of Art, School of Philosophy/UAO

Engineering debates over water management in modern Greece, late 19th-early 20th century

Spyros Tzokas
DPHS/UAO

The development of the Athens water supply system, from 1930 to the present

Apostolos Nasikas
Mechanical Engineer, General Directory of Network and Waterworks, Athens Water Supply and Sewerage Company

Partners

- Technology & Social Change Unit
Water & Environmental Studies Unit
Department of Thematic Studies
Linköping University

- Department of Philosophy & History of Science
University of Athens

Contact: stzokas@phs.uoa.gr

